EVENT DETAILS

The Eugene VeganFest is a celebration of compassionate and sustainable living with fantastic food, innovative vendors, and inspiring speakers. There will be dozens of local vendors featuring delicious plant-based food and drink, non-profits doing good work in the community, animal sanctuaries that rescue animals in need, eco products that help change the world, and more.

Combining traditional marketing efforts with organizational and volunteer-driven social media campaigns, a sponsorship ensures that you will connect with a niche market aligned with sustainability, health, and ethical living values.

As a sponsor, you will:

- ✔ reach your target audience with your message
- ✔ reach a new demographic of festival goers
- ✔ have a wide impact across multiple platforms

A GREAT FIT FOR HIGHLY TARGETED VISIBILITY

Sponsoring with the Eugene VeganFest is a great fit for those wanting targeted marketing. With a wide range of media outreach and promotion including print, online, social media, and radio, sponsors will have ample avenues to engage with an inspired audience. Eugene VeganFest is set to achieve impressive reach and attendance metrics for 2026:

- Estimated Reach: With a robust promotional strategy including media ads, newsletters, social media, and media coverage, the festival is projected to reach over 15,000 individuals across multiple channels.
- Attendance: Our 2025 VeganFest attracted 1500 attendees! We expect to reach 2,000 in 2026.

This festival connects with a highly engaged audience aligned with sustainability, health, and ethical living values and establish itself as a premier event for eco-conscious and plant-based living enthusiasts.

THE ORGANIZER

Hope Bohanec has been active in animal protection and environmental activism for 35 years. She is the Executive Director of Compassionate Living and the host of the Hope for the Animals Podcast. Hope has organized the highly successful Sonoma County VegFest (www.SoCoVegFest.org) for a decade with the first one held in 2014. Hope and her husband moved to Eugene in January of 2023. Eugene is a very special place for them as they fell in love at the Oregon Country Fair in 2000 and have been coming up almost every year since.

Our Volunteer Team is already so excited for the Eugene VeganFest 2026!
